

Remarks on the Board Schooner a E Whyland
 March the 16 the 1915- we Sail from New Bedford Mass
 For whaling Voyage on North of South Atlantic Ocean. with 15th man on board. at 12 20 the tow boat Leave and wind from S.W. all sail set at 6 p.m.
 Set the watch put on the cables below Fine breeze and clear weather no observed From New Bedford we bound to St Eustatius west-indian Ships rest the crew the pump and light attended end of the day

March wednesday the 17
 Strong breeze from East-wind and high Sea taking on light sails and mainsail Set the try sail two steams sight one bound west one bound East pump and light carefull attended no observed end of the day

March Thursday the 18
 Strong breeze from north wind and high sea Cloudy weather the ship under the try sail Pump and light carefull attended no observed end the day

March the 19 Friday
 Fresh breeze from NE wind and squally weather Ship under lead sail and foresail and main try sail pump and light carefull attended lat by D. R. 35° 40' long 66° 25' W end the day

March 20 Saturday
 Strong breeze high wind from S.W.
 Cloudy weather she is under main try sail foresail and pump and light carefull lat 35° 15' long 68°
 end of the day