

1870
Log of the Ship Beaufort in the Arctic Sea
J. M. Blackmer Master

- July 1 Friday this day of Cape Behring working to the eastward wind S.E. foggy the most of the day men employed at Ships Duty Do ends this day
- July 2 Saturday light S.E. wind working to the S foggy the most of the day Land Dist 10 miles men employed at Ships Duty Do ends this day
- July 3 Sunday this day light S.E. wind still working to the eastward foggy the most of the day men employed at Ships Duty Do ends this day
- July 4 Monday this day light S.E. wind of Howe Bay working to the eastward foggy the most of the time men employed at Ships Duty Do ends this day
- July 5 Tuesday this day light S.E. wind and calms Cruising of Marcus Bay thick fog the most of the time men employed at Ships Duty Do ends this day
- July 6 Wednesday this day wind S of Marcus Bay thick fog the most of the day at 12 P.M. of Indians point clear weather men employed at Ships Duty Do ends this day
- July 7 Thursday this day wind S light working through the Straits at 12 P.M. of St. Lawrence Bay men employed at Ships Duty Do ends this day
- July 8 Friday this day S wind at 12 P.M. close in to S. Cape rather part foggy Laying with lead yards & back leading S.E. men employed at Ships Duty Do ends this day
- July 9 Saturday this day light S wind cruising to the S of the Straits foggy men employed at Ships Duty Do ends this day
- July 10 Sunday this day thick fog wind S.E. laying with lead yards & back leading S.E. men employed at Ships Duty Do ends this day