

Ship working toward Pt. Helena

Wednesday March 24
This day moderate breeze
Ship steering N. by E. S. by W
Great nothing in sight, (mist) and latter part moderate breeze steering N. by E. S. by W. Great no sail in sight

(Lat 15-05 S
Long 4-15 W)

Thursday March 25
Ship day am moderate breeze
Ship steering N. by E. S. by W
Great nothing in sight mist part rose the top of Pt Helena latter part came to anchor in Pt Helena
H. Wheeler in Port

Friday March 26
This day am in port employed doing necessary work on board (and part of) boat in shore latter part employed filling up water and other jobs

Saturday March 27
This day am in port
receiving and some oil to land Home sent 225 lbs of oil by the bark (Michel Bereste)
Capt Miller

W. Langley
Mar 22. 1880 in the Latitude 14. 25 N. Long. 4. 15 W
Bound for New Bedford