

The Good Ship Liverpool

Remarks On Board Thursday
 The 14th of April 1853
 This Day this N.E. Trade Wind at Last Winds from about N.W. for the most part of the time and rather light but still I am a getting a heavy bar and I think I shall touch at the Sandwich Islands for a short time for a few hours or so just get the water and then proceed for the Arctic Arctic Ocean

Remarks Thursday 15th 1853
 I now have had the N.E. Trade light and well to the North My Ship now is best shape and just gaining her course nothing west nor strong I feel anxious to get in and do what must with the Whaling Fleet & Co

Lat this Day 14.40
 Long " 145.30
 To Encl

Remarks Friday 17th Squally weather with winds from N.E. to E. N.E. Ship stop up on a wind bore hole the N.E. Trade rather being the time and well to the North

Lat this Day 17.50
 Long 150.24

Bound West in April the 19th 1853

Remarks Monday 18th 1853
 This Day strong winds from N.W.
 Course N.W. with squalls of wind blowing heavy strong Middle of Last part fine wind from N.W. Course N.W.

Remarks Tuesday 19th Strong Trade from N.W. Course N.W. I expect to make the Land tomorrow morning by day light

My Lat 14.35

Long 153.25

All hands a Pulling bottom at 6 this morning saw the East End of Whoby of the Middle Course with squalls of rain & E of the Whoby April 19th 1853