

Honored Sir

Your generosity will excuse the liberty I take to trouble you with a few lines all the I am separated from them that I hold most dear & yet in my thoughts I am constantly with them. The many obligations that I am under to you and knowing your goodness of heart makes me bold to solicit your protection and favour for one that has spent many days under your roof and had the vanity to think she had the friendship and good wishes of all the family should my long absence lay her under any necessity or want of any thing should you assist her or supply her with money or any thing she should be in want of be assured that it will be repaid with interest and humbly acknowledged by your sincere friend and very humble servant
