

Journal of Capt. James M. Smith

Monday, the 30th December on board

The day commenced with strong trade winds to the S by E made first anchorage at 11 AM the land at night before the day went Sat 29th Dec

Wednesday December the first day of Gen

The day commenced with strong trade from the S by E weather at daylight good

All hands worked of the deck commenced to get out the stores and flour

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision

at 11 AM that we got out the last provision