

Brig. Hopeton, Whaling, in the Atlantic Ocean

Remarks Wednesday June 17th 1854
 Comes in with a light breeze cloudy weather at 6 A.M. got underway proceeded to work out of the Bay at 1 P.M. the Pilot left us at 7 do no more
 Land here 12 or 16 miles made all sail through the night blowing fresh with fog and rain & now
 commence sea account
 do ends this day of 18 hours

Hours	To	From	Courses	Winds	Remarks
2	6		998	9 W	comes in with a light breeze fine weather all sail set to the best advantage
4	6
6	7
8	7
10	3				All hands employed ships Duty
12	5
2	5		996	9 W	Middle & latter parts the same
4	8
6	8
8	8
10	8				at 9 A.M. saw a school of Whillers pumps attended to
12	8

Hours	To	From	Courses	Winds	Remarks
2	2		896	Buffling	Begins with a light buffling breeze cloudy weather
4	2
6	2		996
8	5
10	10				Middle part blowing fresh in squalls of rain
12	10
2	10		898		ends with a strong breeze
4	8
6	8
8	8
10	4		998		at 8 A.M. single reef fore D. aft
12	8

Obed. Delano, Commander 1857

Hours	To	From	Courses	Winds	Remarks
2	5		896	Buff	comes in with a light breeze cloudy weather
4	5
6	4				Middle part blowing fresh in squalls of rain
8	4
10	8		996		ends with blowing a gail cloudy weather at 4 A.M. double reef fore D. aft at 7 do gail increasing took in 3 rd or top rail set storm staysails the Brig subverting her work
12	8

No Oles

Hours	To	From	Courses	Winds	Remarks
2	3		896	9 W	2 Begins with blowing a gail squalls of rain
4	3
6	3				Middle & latter parts wind & weather the same
8	3
10	3
12	3
2	3				the Brig under storm staysails & fore sail
4	3
6	3
8	3
10	3
12	3

Hours	To	From	Courses	Winds	Remarks
2	4		896	9 W	2 Begins with blowing a gail thick cloudy weather squalls of rain
4	4
6	4				Middle & latter parts wind & weather the same
8	4
10	4
12	4
2	4				All these 4 hours the Brig under storm staysails & fore sail
4	4
6	4
8	4
10	4
12	4				