

40
Ship Coral Towards New Zealand

January 1st Monday 1851

Begin with brisk breeze from the North

Thursday 2nd Strong gale from the West

Friday 3rd Strong S.W. gales

Saturday 4th Strong S.W. gales

Sunday 5th Strong gale from the South

Monday 6th Strong gale from the West

Tuesday 7th Strong gale from the West

Wednesday 8th Strong gale from the West

Thursday 9th Strong gale from the West

Friday 10th all these hours strong gale from the Westward Lat. 44.35 Long 141.40

Saturday 11th Strong gales from the West Lat. 45.15

Sunday 12th Strong breeze from the W.W.

Monday 13th Strong S.W. breeze

Tuesday 14th Strong breeze from the W.

Wednesday 15th Strong gales from the West and fine weather Lat. 47.05 Long 141.40

Thursday 16th Brisk breeze from the W Lat. 47.15

Friday 17th Strong S.W. gales Lat. 46.36 L. 141.33

Saturday 18th Strong S.W. gales L. 46.24 S. 141.10

1851

Sunday 19th Strong S.W. gale Lat. 46.16

Monday 20th all these hours strong S.W. gales Lat. 47.00 Long 160.40

Tuesday 21st Strong gale from the Westward at 4 P.M. we came up with Solander Island situated towards Island of Paint Barrow E. & W. Dist 20 miles Solander W.S.W. Dist 5 miles long with the main yard to the Mast oriented N. 30 square the ~~sea~~ gales and heading in to the straits

Wednesday 22nd at 1 P.M. we came up with Steuarts Island and ran along shore at 4 P.M. we came to anchor in 4 fms of water in the neck

Thursday 23rd took our anchor and proceeded to Half Moon Bay and came to anchor in 6 fms of water

Friday 24th took anchor from the M. at anchor in Half Moon Bay

Saturday 25th at anchor in Half Moon Bay

Sunday 26th at anchor in Half Moon Bay

Monday 27th at anchor in Half Moon Bay

Tuesday 28th at anchor

Wednesday 29th at anchor

Thursday 30th at anchor

Friday 31st at anchor

Saturday February 2nd 1851 at anchor