

Port Louis Feb of France April 30th at 6:30 AM by civil account & military acting as Captain ordered the ships look in or up in the muzzes rigging & flogged him with the end of the main brace he said for his sending a letter to some boatman that was going on shore from the ship the day before the letter was said to be one that the ship's crew had wrote to the American Consul at ~~Port Louis~~ ^{London} France

Augustine Bay at 2 AM by civil account Capt Murray ordered the ships look to be seized up in the rigging and flogged him with a piece of the ships running rigging then cut him out of the rigging and put him down in the ships run left him there not hours the Captain said he flogged him cause he thought that the look set the ships clack aback of true time
