

Remarks on board Sunday 19th 1844 light winds and good weather all these 24 hours employed in boiling stowing down and breaking out fitting casks saw several right whales but did not lower for them as we have got a sufficient quantity on board so ends

Remarks on board Monday 20th 1844 light winds all these 24 hours employed in boiling and stowing down saw several whales but did not lower for them so ends

Remarks on board Tuesday May 21st 1844 first part of these 24 hours light winds and thick weather middle the same latter part light breezes and thick fog employed in boiling and stowing down so ends

Remarks on board Wednesday May 22^d 1844 first part strong breezes and thick rainy weather middle the same saw right whales toward the boats but did not strike came on board hoisted up the boats employed in boiling and stowing down at 6 past 7 took in sail and at the watch finished boiling at 8 this morning latter part strong breezes and thick fog so ends

Remarks on board Thursday 23^d 1844 first part commences with strong breezes and thick foggy weather middle strong breezes and clear lying to under lost reefed main topsail foresail and fore top mast stay sail with 3 boat watches below latter part light winds and clear finished stowing down we saw a right whale toward the boats but did not strike so ends

Remarks on board Friday 24th commences with light winds and good weather saw right whales and toward the boats and the waist boat struck killed him and took him along side commenced cutting etc latter part good winds finished cutting etc about 4 in the afternoon lowered for right whale the waist boat struck and afterwards the low boat we killed him and took him along side but was not good so we cut him away and then put the cuttings

