

Remarks on board Saturday May the 25th 1844 light winds and good weather all these 24 hours employed in unbending the fly sail and in bending a new one and in fitting crullie saw night whales lowered the boats but did not strike so ends

Remarks on board Sunday May 26th 1844 light winds and good weather all of these 24 hours employed in fitting craft cutting up blubber &c about 2 spoke the Frances Henriette of New Bedford capt Dexter about 10 months out with 400 bly at sunset took in sail so ends steering W for the land

Remarks on Board Monday May 27th 1844 light winds and fog first part of these 24 hours latter end middle part light and thick employed in making sail this morning and in breaking out for water finished breaking out and commenced starting the works at sunset took in sail so ends

Remarks on board Tuesday May 28th 1844 strong breeze and thick weather all of these 24 hours about 12 past 8 saw the land covered with snow wore spits and stood off shore with the mainsail set employed in boiling &c spoke the Frances Henriette and the capt went on board at 4 the capt came on board and set the watches so ends still standing off shore

Remarks on board Wednesday May 29th 1844
corn muzzes with light winds from S.E. steering S.E. under easy sail & Boiling at 1/2 past 3 in the morning the cry of Land, O. low by the wheel was put round Starboard & she soon gust clear of the Breakers - called all hands made all sail stowed by the wind to the Southward the ship Francis Henriette in Company it soon came on to blow from S.E. took in the flying jib Topgallant sail at 5 in A.M. double reefed Top sail at 11. Split the Foretopmast stay sail & took it in at 12 - called the watch & got another out to bend took in the jib & spanker while hauling the jib a Martin Tramp of Gayal Seaman fell overboard & was drowned at 2 P.M. took in the stay sail Wind blowing a gale shipped a sea & tore the stay sail in 2 places