

God direct us how to steer from rocks and Dangers clear

God direct us how to steer

God direct us how to steer from rocks and sands and dangers clear from every harm our bark defend untill our Changfull voyage end,

When we for home next set sail O bless us with its gales with health with strength and pleasant weather and Greatfull hearts on our way thither,

[Large decorative flourish]

Walter Hillman

BINDER'S NOTE

Author: Ship Java
Title: Ship Java
Place and date: At Sea - 1831

Condition when received: Thin quarto volume with rotted leather spine and corners and loose boards. Contents in good condition except for pages 77-82 which are each half gone.

Work performed: Disassembled, cleaned and mended pages and reserved on three cords through original holes. Rebound in new boards with best grade calfskin spine and corners, and Japanese paper sides (Moriki) over which replaced the original marbled sides.

Signed [Signature] Sept. 5, 19 67
George M. Cunha