

Monday March 23rd
 this day light NW NNE
 wind saw seven at sail spoke
 New Bay of Halifax from Turks 31 pm
 Nova Scotia la cady Lat 36.50
 Long 68.30

Tuesday Mar 24 this day beyond light air from N. Ca. N. N. E. wind hauled to N. N. E. in evening to a gale at night at 8 passed wh - land of
 - Port 2 days from N York
 at night here two hundred N. N. E. under star N. N. E. - 3.0. Lat 35.45 3.0 pm Long 69.30

Wednesday 25 this day a gale coming in from the west early in day N. N. E. saw seven to cross Lat 36.00
 9 A.M. Long 69.50

Thursday March 26th
 began with a storm or so gale heavy sea coming the current of my sailing built... then rain and laid equalled lying to to see sea more moderate base...
 Lat 35.42
 Long 69.59

Friday March 27th
 this day less wind and sea still from N. N. E. lying on opposite tack saw seven sail past to the N. N. E. at night a heavy mist from N. N. E. heading N. N. E. over ship to the N. N. E. Lat 35.28
 Long 69.31

Saturday Mar 28
 this day a moderate gale from N. N. E. heavy in evening later more moderate lying opposite tack saw a N. N. E. gale to cross Lat 35.22
 Long 69.26