placed in the new church to be the "Harvest Moon Festival," Sept. and 23d, has been superior to any held its origin was seven years ago. It was narrated by the Dr. L. P. ... these pictures and the temple and whose memory is still cherished. This is said to be an old Indian camp ground, and this annual gathering is in honor of those who once inhabited the vicinity. One hundred or more of the Summer visitants met on Saturday to participate in the exercises. Agent Deo. H.

Bourne and H. E. Cassell, assisted by a score of others, for a week past have been gathering Autumn leaves, fruit, vegetables and flowers for the occasion. The stage was tastefully and elaborately decorated. In the rear was a natural waterfall representing the clouds above in which moon and stars were seen. By a mechanical arrangement of lights the sky was made to resemble one moment of a scene in nature. An arch over the front of the platform, bearing the words "Welcome to our Harvest Moon," added very much to the general effect. To Capt. N. P.
Gibbs, B. F. Chubb, Wm. C. Coit, and others much credit is due for the fine display of the fruits of the season.
