

(Ship "Ansell gifts" of Fairhomen 319 tons) sailed Sept. 17 1839

Nicholson
Whaling Collection

Gift of Paul C. Nicholson
Providence Public Library

Wh
A618
1839L

Remarks On Board July (Night) Oct 4 1839
The first part of these 24 hours the light breeze from the S W standing along by the wind the heading east & with the last part of these 24 hours the light breeze from the S W standing along by the wind the heading west & with one sail in sight saw several too day and Towed it toward for black fish today

Remarks On Board Oct Oct 5
The first part of these 24 hours the fresh breeze from the S W standing along by the The wind the heading west & with the last part of these 24 hours the light breeze from the S W at day light saw Fogall and five but wind changing and Did not get up with them till Late in the afternoon at sundown Tack in sail and lay the main top sail
For the most off fogall one sail in sight

Remarks On Board June Oct 6
The first part of these 24 hours the light breeze from the S W lying off and on at fogall
The last part of these 24 hours the light breeze from the S W lying off and on at Fogall and took crew to shore and sail
In sight

Remarks On Board March Oct 7
The first of these 24 hours the light breeze from the S W lying off and on at fogall the last part of these 24 hours the light breeze from the S W lying off and on at fogall got off the water and pursued Crews and took crew and sail in sight