

Date of Chronometer August 16 1862

3 26 5 loses 2 seconds per day
28
30
32
34
36
38
40
42
44
46
48
50
52
54
56
58
60

September 21
m 4 38 fast

September 26

Chronometer

m 4 48 slow

Gaining 2 8 day

October 12

m 4 20 slow

January 1862

Chronometer

slow m 8 00

Gaining 3 2 day

March 1862

Chronometer

slow m 8 10

loses 2 seconds day

Journal Capt. On Board Bark Ocean On Whaling Voyage in the North Atlantic Ocean By Capt. Polignac Cornell of Westport
Bark Ocean of Sandwick

May the 186

At 10 am left Westport wharf
All hands on board bound to sea
At 12 me off Mashone Point
Pilot left sound

May 7 1862 Wednesday

this day begins with lite winds calm variable taking falling winds all round compass at 10
presser from NSE steered S at sunset part gaily stem bearing E dist 10 miles Middle part fresh breeze west
steered S by E at night SSE Latter fresh breeze SW all sail set steered SE Saw number sails Squads this day
Lat 43 39 50 W Long 68 29 W

May the Thursday 1862

this day begins with fresh breeze
From NW steered ESE by compass
Middle part the same
Latter fresh breeze rapid squads
Lat 43 39 16 W Long 68 11 W

Friday May 9 1862 Thomas Murphy 257 age
Further to the Soby water st

Lat 39 05 this day begins with fresh breeze
Laying all necessary sail set steered ESE
this morning Edward Murphy came on deck
stod him self in Forehand the morning Bark left NB
Middle latter fine breeze W all sail set steered ESE