

Ship Philip Delaney of Fairhaven
See page 111 on Board Thursday the 20
Begins with strong & breezy misty weather
At 11 A.M. took up anchor & stood to sea at 12 noon
The pilot left aboard at 5 P.M.

See page 112 on Board Friday the 21
Begins with strong breezes from SSE pleasant weather aboard at 5 P.M. Middle & latter parts strong breezes from SSE squally weather at 2 P.M.
took in top gallant sails & doubled reefed the top sails aboard at 5 P.M.

See page 113 on Board Saturday the 22
Begins with strong breezes & SE squally weather aboard at 5 P.M. Middle & latter parts light gales from SSE squally at 3 P.M. took in the fore &
mizzen top sails & turned up the Vane Boats

Notes
L. 113
P. 113
L. 113

Lat 49° 15' S
Long 66° 17' W

See page 114 on Board Sunday the 23
Begins with fresh gales from SSE at 2 P.M.
More moderate made sail at intervals Middle & latter parts quite moderate aboard at 5 P.M.
with all sail set

Lat 36° 30' S
Long 60° 00' W

See page 115 on Board Monday the 24
Begins with strong breezes from SE & squally employed variously aboard at 5 P.M. Middle & latter parts light gales from SE squally at 10 A.M. doubled reefed the top sails aboard at 5 P.M.
Saw several sails & forebacks

Notes