

A Journal of our Intended Voyage by Gods Permission to Guinea
 In the Good Brig Polley
 John Burners Master

A Journall of our Intended Voyage to the Coast of Guinea by Gods Permission In the Good Brig Polley
 John Burners Master
 Samuel Angel mate
 William Green Boatswain Died Sep: 9
 Charles Brown Boatswains mate

Samuel Albee	In the Starboard Watch
Samuel Dungey	William Green Died Sep: 9
Joseph Jenkins	Charles Brown
Samuel Gerrard	Sathaniel Drey
Paul Atkins	Matthew Rinkham and
James Coleman	David Huisse
John Pinkham	In the Larboard Watch
David Hussey	Samuel Gerrard
John Durgent	Joseph Jenkins
Samuel Albee	Samuel Albee
Samuel Dungey	Samuel Albee
Joseph Jenkins	Samuel Albee
Samuel Gerrard	Samuel Albee
Paul Atkins	Samuel Albee
James Coleman	Samuel Albee
John Pinkham	Samuel Albee
David Hussey	Samuel Albee
John Durgent	Samuel Albee

Chatham March ye 17th 1774
 This Day We Set Sail for Nantucket on Board the Schooner Luc William Atkins Master) and Arrived there ye 18th 3rd Sunth

March 23rd This Day I Shipped with Capt John Burners to go to the Coast of Guinea in the Brig Polley

Thursday
 April ye 9th This Day We Hauld off in the Rhodet In order for to sail

Thursday
 ye 14th Day we Set Sail from Nantucket Bar the wind at S. S. E. Small breeze and went to sea

Friday
 ye 15th the wind at S E and Rain at 10 o'clock Handed our Gibb & main top masts staysail, at 11 o'clock Handed our main top and sent Down fore top galland yard

Saturday 16th This Day the wind at W. N. W.
 Fresh Breeze at 12 o'clock Spok with a Ship from London; we are under for sail fore top and main staysail, Cors E. S. E. S. E. South the Day

Sunday 17th first Part of this Day Small wind at S. S. W. at 10 o'clock Spok with a Schooner bound to Salem on the Isle Sable Ground, at night very at 12 o'clock blew hard we handed our fore sail & fore staysail

Monday 18th the first Part of this Day the Wind at W. N. W. Fresh breeze the Last Part of this Day the wind at N. W. Small Breeze 5 Days out