Man may in scenes of every kind
 Fit lessons of instructions find
 The blind for Inquiry and wrong
 Prepares the oppressor with a song
 A blush to think that heaven inspired
 Thy breast should be with malice fired
 Learn thence thy passions to restrain
 And still that Godlike will maintain
 To seek no vengeance on a foe
 But bless the hand that gives the blow

There is a joy so pure and true
 When youthfull friends in reason meet
 It seems a heavenly interview
 There is no transient joy so sweet

But there is a grief that will expand
 The breast that holds a tender heart
 'Tis when we shake the parting hand
 When youthfull friends forever part
