

SPERM WHALE

Bk. A. P. Tucker of New Bedford

Sailed from New Bedford

April 29th 1891

For Hudson Bay

Capt. L. Fisher

Master

Tuesday April 28th

Dr
29th

Fine pleasant weather from NW with a fresh breeze. Mch anchor at 10 A.M. Tug left at 11 A.M. and at 12.30 P.M. left the Pilot on board. Men & Childrens light Boat Bk. steering South under Double reef Top sail so ends this day

Days out from

1 Wednesday April 29th

Lat
Long

N
W

Dr
29th

Blowing a moderate Gale from N.W. steering South latter part steering S.S.E. 1 man moderate

Thursday April 30th

Lat
Long

Dr
falling

2

This day comes on with strong westerly winds steering S.S.E. Employed getting the Boats ready. All under Double reef Top sails latter part Blowing a Gale from West took on Full Top sail