

1922

Thursday August 1st this the day with calm and light breeze sails under all sails march the vessel

lat 39.54 Long 71.56

wednesday 2
 the day with keen strong wind from ESE sails under all sails made island Mantau in Long island so entered the day

Thursday 3
 the day with calm sea
 heavy to anchoring at
 of Blount island

Friday 4
 the day in calm fair
 to gained winds light

Sat Aug 5. 1922

Arrived off a breast of Butler's flat in the harbor of New Bedford and anchored the John Gruber weather calm with a heavy tide so ends this voyage